

MASTER IN EDUCATION (MEd) Major in NATURAL SCIENCE

Program Description

The program is designed to develop the students' skills and competence in teaching principles and concepts in Natural Science and in handling laboratory and field equipments relevant to the course.

Program Educational Objectives

1. Be updated with current trends, development and discoveries in the field of Natural Sciences.
2. Integrate research in the design of classroom activities;
3. Develop social responsibility and appreciation of their role in nation building.
4. Promote critical thinking as an essential element in learning and in the exercise of critical values in dealing with issues affecting the human society and the natural environment.

Admission Policies

A student seeking admission to the program must comply with the following:

1. hold a degree in General Science with at least 12 units of professional courses in education or other related fields from an accredited college or university; 1.1 An applicant with insufficient background in science will be required to take prerequisite courses of up to 12 units.
2. have to take the entrance tests of aptitude (CEM - Graduate Level Test on Verbal, Quantitative and Inductive Reasoning) and essay that will measure written communication skill;
3. have to pass the panel interview; and
4. have to submit other required documents for admission.

Retention Policies

To be retained in the program, the student must:

1. maintain a satisfactory cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA) of 2.0 (85) or better in all subjects taken for the entire duration of the program; and
2. have not incurred a failure in any subject.