

MASTER IN EDUCATION (MEd)

Major in SOCIAL STUDIES

Program Description

This is non-thesis program designed to provide students an opportunity to learn various interpretations given by behavior scientists to contemporary society, particularly in the Third World. This program uses the interdisciplinary approach and is an ideal preparation for teachers in the social sciences departments whose course offerings are not limited to any particular discipline.

Program Educational Objectives

1. Exhibit deeper understanding and appreciation of the Filipino heritage through relevant cultural and social underpinnings;
2. Acquire a wide range of knowledge of social and political theories and methodologies;
3. Develop higher learning skills and competence responsive to the realities current issues and trends in local and international developments; and
4. Develop and nurture social responsibility to be able to contribute meaningfully to nation building through a dynamic leadership in education.